Call 04/2024

First Call

Young Talent with Experience Abroad and Postdoctoral Researcher with Experience Abroad

1. The call for applications to Young Talent and Postdoctoral Researcher with Experience Abroad fellowships within the scope of the Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Rio Grande do Sul (PUCRS) Institutional Internationalization Project (PII) under the CAPES/PrInt Program at PUCRS is made public, as follows.
2. Purpose
 - 2.1. This Call for Proposals aims to increase the number of young researchers with relevant academic and scientific experience in research and/or teaching activities in the Graduate Programs of the Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Rio Grande do Sul (PUCRS), associated with the applicant's area of expertise.
 - 2.2. This Call comprises the submission of proposals for the following funding category: (1) Fellowships from specific International Cooperation Projects (ICP) and (2) Fellowships awarded by the Office of the Vice President for Research and Graduate Studies (PROPESQ) according to broad themes.
 - 2.3. This call for proposals includes 2 (two) different modalities:
 - 2.3.1. Young Talent with Experience Abroad: for young talented researchers, from Brazil or abroad, who live overseas and have certified relevant academic international experience (such as having completed a Master's or Ph.D. or who have completed research internships at the Master's or Ph.D. level for at least 12 months) for teaching or research.
 - 2.3.2. Postdoctoral Researcher with Experience Abroad: for faculty or researchers, from Brazil or overseas, living either in Brazil or abroad, and who have certified relevant academic international experience (such as having completed a Ph.D. or who have completed Postdoctoral research for at least 12 months) for teaching or research.

2.4. The main goals of this call are:

- 2.4.1. Expand the international collaboration network of PUCRS' Graduate Programs;
- 2.4.2. Consolidate the Graduate Programs' international partners;
- 2.4.3. Encourage international partnerships that will effectively contribute to improved academic production from Graduation Programs at PUCRS;
- 2.4.4. To attract young researchers from abroad with an international background to PUCRS' Graduate Programs.

3. Duration and Available Fellowships

- 3.1. The number of available fellowships, including their duration and respective International Cooperation Projects (ICP) is listed in the document List of available fellowships opportunities, available on: <https://www.pucrs.br/print/calls-for-applications/>.
- 3.2. When available resources in the same or other fellowship modalities in the PCIs and the Office of the Vice President for Research and Graduate Studies award, PUCRS will request CAPES the resource transformation to meet the eligible alternate list. CAPES is responsible for authorizing the requests.
- 3.3. Whereas the obligation to return by October 2024.

13. Final Considerations

13.1. Host professor obligations:

- 13.1.1 Work closely with the scholar, make sure to comply with the program's guidelines and standards, and report on any problems or irregularities, as they will act as an interlocutor between the Office of Graduate Studies/PROPESQ and the grantee;
 - 13.1.2 In case the award is interrupted, inform the Office of Graduate Studies/PROPESQ as soon as possible and send a justification for the cancellation;
 - 13.1.3 To assist the international scholar in issues he/she may encounter related to their visit to Brazil including visa application, if necessary.
- 13.2. International applicants will be responsible for obtaining the appropriate visa to come to Brazil. The type of visa will depend on the activities to be developed. The visa must be valid for the period of the applicant's stay in Brazil.
 - 13.3. The awardees should mention the financial support received through the PUCRS Institutional Internalization Program granted by CAPES/PrInt Call N° 41/2017, in any publication of the results achieved under the program.
 - 13.4. Recipients may be required to hold seminars, write articles, and take part in events to exchange experiences.
 - 13.5. Upon conclusion of the fellowship, the awardee should submit a final report to diretoriapg.print@pucrs.br within 1 month, as per Appendix IV.
 - 13.6. As required by the CAPES/PrInt Call N° 41/2017, at least 70% of the financial resources should be allocated to proposals involving countries with whom CAPES has cooperation agreements.
 - 13.7. The awardee of this Notice must refer to the aid received by CAPES in all publications resulting from studies performed during the period of the fellowship received, using the following expressions, in the language of the work: "O presente trabalho foi realizado com auxílio da Coordenação de Aperfeiçoamento de Pessoal de Nível Superior - Brasil (CAPES) - Código de Financiamento 001." "This study was financed in part by the Coordenação de Aperfeiçoamento de Pessoal de Nível Superior - Brasil (CAPES) - Finance Code 001".

- 13.8. This Call for Proposals follows Article 4, item 4.1.4 BOLSAS DO PAÍS and its sub-items 4.1.4.2 and 4.1.4.3 of CAPES Call 041/2017 – Program for Institutional Internationalization (CAPES/PrInt).
- 13.9. It is the sole responsibility of PUCRS to conduct the selection process and nominate applicants to CAPES. CAPES may, at its sole discretion, award the grant according to the requirements presented in the current version of Call 041/2017.
- 13.10. The implementation of the benefit is conditioned to the government and sanitary rules and regulations in force in Brazil and/or imposed by the PUCRS. PUCRS does not guarantee or grant any guarantee to grant benefit if it is canceled or revoked by CAPES.
- 13.11. PUCRS is not responsible for the implementation of the scholarship in the event of budgetary or financial restrictions, as well as for eventual budgetary cuts by CAPES.
- 13.12. If you have any questions or concerns on this Call, please contact the Office by diretoriapg.print@pucrs.br.
- 13.13. The CAPES/PrInt Project Manager Group at PUCRS will resolve the cases not covered herein.
