13. Final Considerations

13.1. Host professor obligations:

13.1.1 Work closely with the scholar, make sure to comply with program's guidelines and standards, and report on any problems or irregularities, as they will act as an interlocutor between the Office of Graduate Studies/PROPESQ and the grantee.

13.1.2 In case the award is interrupted, inform the Office of Graduate Studies/PROPESQ as soon as possible and send a justification for the cancellation;

13.1.3 To assist the international scholar in obtaining the CPF number, opening of a bank account, finding housing and available health services.

13.2. International applicants will be responsible for obtaining the appropriate visa to come to Brazil. The type of visa will depend on the activities to be developed. The visa must be valid for the period of the applicant's stay in Brazil.

13.3. The recipients of the award shall mention they have received support by Capes in any publication of the results achieved under the program, as described in its respective agreement.

13.4. Recipients may be required to hold seminars, write papers and take part in events to exchange experiences, if requested.

13.5. Upon conclusion of the fellowship, the awardee should submit a final report to diretoriapg.print@pucrs.br within 1 month, as per Appendix IV.

- 13.6. As stated in the PII guidelines, at least 70% (seventy percent) of the resources will be allocated to partnerships with universities from countries with which Capes cooperates effectively.
- 13.7. The application must take into consideration the countries that are listed in the area of the project to which they are submitting their application.
- 13.8. This Call has been designed in view of the provisions of Article 4, item 4.1.4 BOLSAS DO PAÍS and its sub-items 4.1.4.2 and 4.1.4.3 of CAPES Call 041/2017 – Institutional Program of Internationalization (CAPES/PrInt).
- 13.9. No awards will be granted to relatives or spouses of CAPES' personnel up to third degree, according to Decree 7203 dated Jun 4, 2010 in Binding Summary No. 13 / STF (Federal Supreme Court).
- 13.10. It is the sole responsibility of PUCRS to conduct the selection process and nominate applicants to CAPES. CAPES may, at its sole discretion, award the grant according to the requirements presented in the current version of Call 041/2017.
- 13.11. PUCRS is not responsible for the implementation of the award in the event of budgetary or financial restrictions, as well as of budgetary cuts by CAPES.
- 13.12. If you have any questions or concerns, please send an email to diretoriapg.print@pucrs.br.
- 13.13. The cases not covered herein will be resolved by the CAPES-Print Project Manager Group at PUCRS.
